Gettysburg Compiler.

FRIDAY JAN 14 1870

The Houses of Congress are still in session discussing the Amnesty question.

A Mr Temperance Convention which met at Harrisburg on the 5th inst. adjourned yesterday.

The House of Representatives of Pennsylvania has passed a bill to repeal the Act relating to the sale of Patent Rights.

The Lancaster Intelligencer appears in a new dress and with its issue of last week completes its 67th volume. We hope it may be as fortunate in the future as it has been in the past.

Mr Lowry of Dauphin introduced a bill in the Senate on Tuesday to prohibit the sale of Pistols and other deadly weapons.

The Senate passed the following resolution on Monday which was twice read and adopted:

Resolved That the Committee on the Judiciary General be hereby required to report a bill to prohibit the sale of Pistols in Pennsylvania.

He also offered the following resolution, which was twice read and adopted:

Resolved That the Committee on the Judiciary General be hereby requested to inquire into the expediency of framing a bill to prohibit the sale of Pistols in Pennsylvania.

Mr Howard offered the following resolution, which was twice read and adopted:

Resolved That the Governor be requested to transmit to the Senate a copy of his message to the Legislature of Mississippi, but be instructed to withhold the same from publication.

Mr Howard moved to take up the resolution of Mr Lowry, relative to the Pistol Law, which was twice read and adopted.

Mr Howard said that he had received a communication from the Governor of Mississippi, which he had kept back for the purpose of having it read in connection with the resolution of Mr Lowry

Behind the Curtain Behind the Scenes. Thus is the title of a new book by Miss Olive Logan formerly an actress but now one of the most brilliant of lecturers. Having abandoned the stage and entered the rostrum the fair author is she has prepared this work with a view to a termination of the stage. The book is to be handsomely printed and illustrated and will be doubtless very readable. Miss Logan is and she is to take into the secrets of the show world behind the scenes of the theatre into the dressing rooms of the Circus among the real animals of the Menagerie exhibits a brilliant phantasmagoria of balloon mountebanks, acres of tresses, portable artists, street tumblers, jugglers, wild beast tamers their public and private livers habits both good and bad, and in short, a veritable terra incognita out of the mysterious world concerning which so little has hitherto been clearly known. In the hands of an ordinary writer this book would suggest much that is disagreeable to read and to reflect upon. But Olive Logan has so proved herself of good morals, and sound virtuous principles that no one need fear that the tone of the book will be low.

The book will only be sold by subscription and an agent is now canvassing Gettysburg for subscribers.

Presents. On Saturday afternoon last the Officers and Teachers of the Methodist Episcopal Sabbath School of this place presented their worthy Superintendent, Mr. J. L. Schick, with a handsome silver Pitcher and a purse of gold. Mr. Lostmacht presented the gift on the part of the school in a very appropriate address to which Mr. Schick responded in a very feeling manner. The gift was entirely unsolicited and unexpected. The affair had been got up so quietly and judiciously that Mr. Schick knew nothing of it, and was consequently quite surprised. It was a pleasant occasion, and was enjoyed by the entire school. Ms

Sleigh Ride. Those of our friends who enjoyed a sleigh ride on Saturday last report a very pleasant time. The roads were in fine order, and the sleigh bells merry. The party visited Emmitsburg, where they were hospitably entertained by the citizens of that place. Those who participated in the ride intend to reciprocate the favor at some early day.

Accident. Mr. Jacob Hoffman, of Mt. Pleasant, while on his way home from this place on Monday night last, met with a slight accident. The shaft of his sleigh broke and he was thrown out and his face slightly bruised. He was able to be about the next day.

Sleigh Ride. The young people of Mt. Pleasant and vicinity had a sleigh ride to this place on Tuesday night last. They came in two large sleighs and were very merry. They visited Emmitsburg and spent a few hours very pleasantly at the residence of Mr. Jacob Hoffman, near Mt. Pleasant. They returned home early in the morning, all well pleased with their trip.

Dr. Rice's Lecture. Dr. Rice's lecture on Tuesday evening last was very well attended, and the audience were highly entertained and instructed by the lecture. The Doctor's lectures are very popular and he always draws a good house.

Sleigh Ride. Some of our young men who have been in the habit of using a very fine team of horses for sleighing purposes, intend giving a sleigh ride to-morrow (Friday) evening. The team will be in good order and the sleigh will be well filled with young men and women who will enjoy the ride very much.

Dr. Rice's Lecture. Dr. Rice will lecture in the Lutheran church in this place on Tuesday evening next, the 18th inst. The lecture is for the benefit of the Sabbath School connected with the church, and should be well attended

GREEN peas grown in Florida are sold in the northern cities at exorbitant prices.

A FARMER in Indiana had a corn husking and charged each of the party twenty-five cents for their supper.

WE learn on the authority of the London Westminster Gazette that a statue of Mr. Peabody is to be erected in Rome by order of the Pope.

A LITTLE girl, seeing a litter of kittens for the first time, expressed her opinion "that somebody had shaken pieces all to pieces."

How easy and pleasant it is to assign motives for the conduct of our neighbors when we gather them unconsciously from our own hearts.

THE skeleton of a man murdered in Iowa three years ago, has just been found, still tied by a long bench on the chair to the murderer convicted.

A YOUNG lady of Boston was recently taken to see Hackett in "Merry Wives of Windsor," and during the play she asked her escort to point out Mr. Windsor, as she did not see his name on the bill.

LIFE is a book of which we can have but one edition. Let each day's actions, as they add their pages to the immortal volume, be such as we shall be willing to have an assembled world read.

AN old offender was lately introduced to a legislature of the Peace, in one of the reconstructed States, as John Simmons, alias Jones, alias Smith.—"I'll try the two women first," said the Black-robed Justice, "Hiring in Alias Jones."

THE girls of Tipton, Indiana, have resolved that "we will not accompany any young man to church, or other place of amusement, who uses tobacco," which we call exceedingly hard both on Church and State, recarding the young men as the bulwark of the latter.

THERE is nothing equal to a cheerful and even mirthful conversation, for restoring the tone of mind and body when both have been overdone. Some great and good men, on whom very heavy tasks and cares have been laid, manifest a constitutional tendency to relax into mirth, when their work is over. Narrow minds denounce the incongruity; large hearts own God's goodness in the fact, and rejoice in the wise provision made for prolonging useful lives. Mirth, after exhaustive toil, is one of nature's instinctive efforts to heal the part which has been labored.

THE COMMON WAY.—A Western correspondent gives the following incident of one of his missionary tours on the Western borders of Minnesota. Meeting a youngster of twelve, we asked him:

"Do you go to Sunday school?"

"No."

"Is there one I attend?"

"No."

"Have you a Bible?"

"No."

"Are you trying to be a Christian?" He did not know what that meant; so we said, "do you pray?"

"No; I was not brought up in that way."

"What way were you brought up?"

"O, just the common way."

IT is said that an interview of the following nature took place between the King Sandwich, of the Sandwich Islands, and an American who was sent there to see about purchasing them. When our ambassador broached the project to the King, that dignitary sat smoking and looking contented with the world as if he had been one of Wordsworth's beggars. Having listened to the proposition, he replied: "Good here, I get $40,000 a year now for being King, and if I should do what you want me to I would get to be a King any longer, but only a private citizen, and I wouldn't get $40,000 per year for your President gets only $25,000. Now, I don't think it would pay to sell out do you?" Our ambassador looked at the mass of grease and contentment, and remarked simply: "Your Majesty, your head is level!" Whereupon the King smiled and smoked on.

Horse & Cattle Powder.

This Preparation has become great favorite with the people of Adams county—will thoroughly invigorate broken down and low spirited Horses, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and intestines. It is sure preventative of all diseases. Its use improves the wind, increases the appetite, gives a smooth and glossy skin, and transforms the skeleton into a fine looking and spirited horse.

To the person of cows this preparation is invaluable. It increases the quantity and improves the quality of the milk, and makes the butter firm and sweet. In fattening cattle it gives them an appetite, loosens their hide and makes them thrive much faster.

In all diseases of swine this article is a specific; by putting from a quarter to half a paper in a barrel of swill. The diseases will be eradicated or entirely prevented. It gives in time a healthy growth to the Shoats. Price twenty per pound paper; 25 per lb.

BE WISE

WHILE wisdom will benefit you; be not always controlled by your inevitability. Hundreds have sought relief from the horrors of Dyspepsia through the medium of Hostetter's Anti-Dyspeptic Stomach Bitters and found it. Why should you suffer when Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has cured many similar cases—why do you doubt, while others believe and are cured? Delay in this matter is both dangerous and culpable, your health, happiness, and business suffers, while constant neglect is frequently followed by serious and untoward results. Hostetter's Bitters are equally useful in the numerous difficulties attending indigestion as BILIOUSNESS, CONSTIPATION, &c., while for FEVER and AGUE and other disorders proceeding from MIASMATA, it is the only reliable preventive and remedy known.

MOTHERS! Mrs. Bend's Infant Relief cures Summer Complaint, Diarrhea, Colic, and is infallible in Teething. It imparts during the teething period, it relieves pain, allays inflammation, regulates the bowels, and promotes natural sleep.
